Saturday, March 31st join the group going to the Hale Centre Theatre to see No, No, Nanette at 3 pm. No, No Nanette is a lighthearted romp showcasing the charming music of Vincent Youmans. The wacky story involves three couples sharing a cottage in Atlantic City in the midst of a blackmail scheme, with plenty of deception, romantic mishaps, and comical misunderstandings. The score includes two of the best-known songs in musical theatre – “Tea for Two” and “I Want to Be Happy” – as well as “I’ve Confessed To The Breeze,” “You Can Dance With Any Girl” and “Take a Little One-Step. Tickets only $24 if at least 10 people sign up. Otherwise the price is $32. Sign up and pay by Thursday, March 15th.

Saturday, April 7th join the group going to the Hale Centre Theatre to see The Importance of Being Earnest at 3 pm. It's the story of two bachelors, John 'Jack' Worthing and Algernon 'Algy' Moncrieff, who create alter egos named Ernest to escape their tiresome lives. They attempt to win the hearts of two women who, conveniently, claim to only love men called Ernest. The pair struggle to keep up with their own stories and become tangled in a tale of deception, disguise and misadventure. With a few new twists, this funny, and at times absolutely hilarious comedy, will delight one and all! Tickets only $24 if at least 10 people sign up. Otherwise the price is $32. Sign up and pay by Thursday, March 22nd.
